should give it a try because this will be up your alley. Real good value for the price of a starbucks coffee.. Microgons is a well designed and easy to pick up turn based game for two players. Choose 6 meeples from a pool of 24 figurines to assemble your team, generate a game board and you are ready to start a match. The first one to kill the enemy king wins the game and while trying to achieve that goal you can employ a wide variety of skills and tactics. Each meeple comes with different movement rules, its own special skill and hit points. Despite all of that depth Microgons is very easy to just pick up and play thanks to a stylish but minimalistic interface. There is just nothing wrong with Microgons. It looks cool, has a lot of depth, is very well balanced, there is a lot of replayability and to top it all off, its just 4,99. I wholeheartedly recommend Microgons to everyone who likes good game design and is looking for a 1 on 1 boardgame. Matches tend to be around 10 to 20 minutes, so its a nice coffee break game as well. And on a sidenote: I simply love the relaxing soundtrack.. nice game to play w/ friends
